

CL #2 Emergency Water Supply Checklist

5 Oct 2014

Purpose: To help you select and acquire everything you will need to have good water during emergencies.

From the following Emergency Water Supply solutions, select 1 or 2 of these as your primary and 1 or 2 as backup means of having drinkable water available for you and your family in emergency situations. You will want to calculate for 1 gallon per person per day of good water for drinking & cooking.

_____ 1) Write down how many people you need to have good water available for _____

_____ 2) Check out the solutions below for the ones that best fit your needs. Write down prices and your notes as you research.

- _____ 2) Research the systems, tools, filters, etc. to meet your family's water needs in various emergency situations. Be sure to write down prices and your notes as you research.
- _____ 3) Still have questions on the best water filters, etc. for you? Contact Bob Cook.
- _____ 4) Finalize your research. Circle in pencil the items you will be getting then write down where to get them. Start acquiring the above items you need.
- _____ 5) Test each of you items to insure they work and work the way you expected. Return anything that will not work for you and replace with what will work.
- _____ 6) Now that you have 1 or 2 primary sources of good water and 1 or 2 backup systems, prove to yourself you can filter and purify your own water.
